Grand Hotel Les Trois Rois's Board of Directors focuses on continuity

Press release

Basel, 12 June 2023 – Following Stefan Meister's appointment to the Board of Directors of Grand Hotel Les Trois Rois in March, the Straumann family, who owns the hotel, has now taken another step towards continuity.

Thomas Straumann has decided to pave the way for the future by introducing the younger generation to the Board. As his replacement, Amy Straumann was elected to the Board of Directors at last week's annual general meeting.

Mr Straumann explained: 'This step shall underline our commitment for the future by including the next generation on a strategic level, enabling them to help continue shaping the future of the hotel'. Amy Straumann, Thomas Straumann's daughter-in-law, is already actively involved in various projects at Les Trois Rois. Alongside Ursula Straumann, she represents the owner family at the highest level. After her studies, Amy Straumann worked in the real estate industry in Gstaad. She then held various positions in the medical sector, both in Switzerland and abroad.

Stefan Meister was appointed new Vice President of the Board of Directors. He succeeds Hans Wiedemann, who had held the position for many years. Mr Wiedemann will remain a member of the Board.

About the Grand Hotel Les Trois Rois SA

The Grand Hotel Les Trois Rois was built in 1844 and is one of the oldest city hotels in Europe. Located in the heart of Basel, directly on the Rhine, the hotel was renovated between 2004 and 2006 with great attention to detail by the Straumann family and is today one of the most acclaimed luxury hotels in the world.
